

APPLICATIONS 2026/2027 OUTSIDE STUDENTS

RECEIPIENTS

It isn't required to be a higher education student to attend ESAP's curricular units.

Under Decree-Law No. 65/2018 of 16 August, which amends Decree-Law No. 74/2006 of 24 March, as amended by Decree-Laws Nos. 107/2008 of 25 June, 230/2009 of 14 September, 115/2013 of 7 August, and 63/2016 of 13 September, the possibility was established for any interested person to enroll in individual course units, with the guarantee that, upon successful completion, these units will be certified and may also be credited, if and when the student enrolls in a degree program that includes them.

ACCESS CONDITIONS

According to article 46.º - A, regarding registration in curricular units:

1. The Teaching Institutions provide registration in the curricular units which they teach;
2. Registration can be made by registered students in a higher education course or any other interested person;
3. Registration can be made with or without being subjected to evaluation;
4. When enrollment is subject to assessment, each student can enroll in a maximum of 60 credits accumulated throughout their academic career;
5. The curricular units in which the student enrolls in the regime subject to evaluation and in which it obtains approval:
 - a) Are object of certification;
 - b) Are mandatorily credited, within the limits determined in subparagraph c), n.º 1, article 45.º, if its holder has or comes to acquire the status of student of a higher education study cycle;
 - c) Are included in Diploma Supplement that may be issued.
6. For registration under this article's terms are due the amounts determined, in proportion, by the education establishment's legally and statutorily competent body.

Therefore, under Decree Law n.º 65/2018, the student can enroll in a maximum of 60 credits accumulated during his / her academic course, under the same conditions as the other students. These curricular units will be crediting (equivalence) to an integrated master or bachelor degree when they obtain normal student status through one of the possible entry regimes.
